“ I'm so sorry to hear of Melvin's passing. We worked together at Tower for years but I never really got to know him until a few months ago. He spoke so fondly of his family and was so proud to have been married for over 20 years. He spoke about how he loved the dog and showed pictures. My God give comfort and peace to Melvin's family, friends and co-workers that surpasses all understanding.

“ One of the best, most patient people I have had the privilege of knowing. His kindness, helpful spirit, and love for life attitude will be missed. So will the sharing and comparing of food we had in the smoker! A true friend forever - Ken Rosink
