“ Don't Tell Me

*Please don't tell me you know how I feel,
Unless you have lost your child too.
Please don't tell me my broken heart will heal,
Because that is just not true.
Please don't tell me my son is in a better place,
Though it is true, I want him here with me.
Don't tell me someday I'll hear his voice, see his face,
Beyond today I cannot see.
Dont tell me it is time to move on,
Because I cannot.
Dont tell me to face the fact he is gone,
Because denial is something I can't stop.
Don't tell me to be thankful for the time I had,
Because I wanted more.
Don't tell me when I am my old self you will be glad,
I'll never be as I was before.
What you can tell me is you will be here for me,
That you will listen when I talk of my child.
You can share with me my precious memories,
You can even cry with me for a while.
And please don't hesitate to say his name,
Because it is something I long to hear everyday.
Friend please realize that I can never be the same,
But if you stand by me,
You may like the new person I become someday.*

“ To the Family of Mr. Melvin Green III, I would like to extend my condolences and let you know I will keep your Family in my prayers. Asking, that God will supply you with the strength that you need to make it through this season in your lives.

To Melvin's Mom: There is absolutely no hurt like losing a child. Oh, but God!!

He is able to carry you through those lonely nights and those days you can't seem to put one foot in front of the other. Just remember, Trust Him, you are never alone.

Especially to little D.J. (my great nephew) I know it hurts but as you grow up, May you reflect on the positive words spoken and the values your Dad instilled in you as a little fella as you become the "Great" young man you are destined to become. May you grow to cherish the special moments that you, your Dad and your siblings spent together.

My heart aches, but I know God is able and He will carry you through.
