“ To the entire family of Mo Mercy D Davis Tucker- family and friends Just to let you know we share in sadness of your loved one. We grew up knowing this wonderful lady. a mother, sister and a friend. A church leader could never have a greater supporter and one who esteemed her leader and her Lord at all times. A servant for Christ. A lover of people. We will miss Mother. Praying that each of you will allow God to strengthen, deliver and direct you as you go through the grief process. God can and God will comfort and keep you. We are here to support you and pray with and for you. Love You.

“ Although your work wasn't seen by all, nor recognized with name or call. The Lord knows and has seen each deed, each detail and planted seed. Your love, your smile, your special touch. The life of Christ was seen in you. All the years gone by the Lord has taken you and I know why. He needed a special soldier in His army of angels To continue to give Him praise and glory. Rest quietly in peace in peace .Deacon George and Missy Ellen Hunt
