

Mrs. Mi Kyung Adams

December 18, 1936 - October 15, 2013

Mikyung Bai Adams was a warrior to us. It all began in Seoul, Korea where a little girl was born. This feisty young woman set out on a journey to the United States in 1959, at the age of 23, with hopes and dreams of a new world.....a new life. The union of marriage to Robert Bradley Adams created the beautiful union of three boys and one girl.

Many events in her life challenged her to raise a family in the inner city of Detroit as a single parent. One can only imagine all the obstacles that hindered her from many opportunities due to her ethnicity, but she never waivered.....she never gave up. This heroic woman lived on this earth 76 years, with strong focus on her faith. To withstand being in a foreign country despite the adversities, she continued to exemplify a strong and true devotion to her children.

She worked with the Department of Education at Pattengill Elementary School as part of the food service staff. Many of you remember in our childhood growing up seeing Momma serving our lunch, making sure our portions were enough to sustain you for at least three days....that was the giving in her. She had a meek, quite spirit touched by shyness, until that five foot ball of fire woman began to feel comfortable. Then she was one lady you would never forget. She always had a conclusion to everything; simply said, "Take care of yourself." That's only because coming here from another country so young, so unaware of the big world in front of her, she had no other choice but to take care of herself. Momma, the survivor of many things, but the legend of our family. She will be missed....truly missed. But if this time with the Lord will totally heal her heart, mind and body, then we have no other choice but to rejoice in the Lord that she is now happy and at peace....maybe for one of the very first times of her life.
