“ i can remember as a young girl always feeling like mike was my hero, he would be there every time i went thru it with my dad and had family problems at home. at that time i felted lost i was just 14 meeting mike. he was dark and sexy and could dance his ass off. he was my friend before my first love. His listing ear was always open i thought by now we would have kids and made our way back to each other, but life has a funny way of saying shit doesnt go anyone way. he was ripped from this world to soon and i wish we left off on a better note. i can remember us laying up one day just late in bed one day after a funny night out downtown and he asked me would i come to his funeral if he was to pass before me but im sorry mike after seeing you at the viewing i couldnt when i felt how cold your hand was..... i just wish you were still here i miss you and love you michael now, than and forever

“ *To the Rutledge Family
For Mr. Michael Anthony Bryson
From The Moorman Family*

*The Broken Chain
We did not know that day,
That god would call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone,
Cause part of us went with you,
The day god called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
You're always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same;
But as god calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
From,
The Moorman Family.*
