

Mr. Michael Steven Parks

June 29, 2015 - October 21, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Michael Stevens Parks:

Michael Stevens Parks was born on June 29, 1954 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Ruben and Martha Parks, he was the fourth of nine children to their union.

Michael attended Northwestern High School, in September of 1972, he began his extended career at Chrysler Automotive, where he served 30 years before retiring due to illness.

In October of 1973, Michael married Ernest Geowell Shelley, to their union three children were born; Talonda, Takilla and Michael, Jr.

Michael accepted Christ at an early age and was studying to become a Deacon at Sunrise Missionary Baptist Church under the direction of Pastor Charles Dawson, when illness struck.

To many, Michael was considered the life of the family, his love for his family was beyond compare. Michael's humor was well known and sought after by many, he loved music and always knew how to put his one of a kind dance moves to any beat. If you knew Michael, you most definitely will remember his self acclaimed phrases such as: "I'm a Mack without cheese you can't buy one of these," as well as, "Forget the mustard...ketchup," and many more.

On October 21, 2015, Michael departed this earthly life to a life of reward. He will forever be loved and missed.
