“Mike and Hurlandrus (sp) spent a lot of times together with me when their two children were very little. I recall when Duke broke out the television screen. Being a homey from Starkville, Mississippi, Mikes' granny knew me very well, as well as my Aunts and Uncles. My Uncle Smila worked at the Metro Airport with his Dad (Baptist). His Dad received a commendation for 30 years on the Hertz rental car job. There is a picture on the walls of Mr. Tabb. New Bethel Baptist Church was the home church, everyone served with the late great Rev. C.L. Franklin, as well as singing in the choir with Aretha Franklin and her sisters before they passed on. Memories, faded and only Mike and I shared memories of hidden stories of our families. I went wherever he was and talked for hours about whoever and whatever we wanted to share with one another and no one can take his place in my heart. He told me I would have to take care of myself cause he would no longer be able to make sure I was safe. That surely touched my heart, cause it was God for us all the time that had taken care of us both. I took him a Bible and told him I would be back, he told the people on the floor I was coming and it was late, I made it. He said to the attendants, "I told you, she was coming." A mustard seed of faith was what my pal had, and he knew, I knew. I still, send mustard seeds, turnips, and collard seeds to our friends, his cousins, Mrs. Janie Outlaw and Jean Douglas for Big Duck and Jerry to plant in the garden that flourishes every year when I am able to return to see our friends that we shared with stories. I know, "Flussie, says, Hello." From Beauty Loraine to Michael Frank. I will miss you so much, sincerely. It was a pleasure serving on a team where we shared so much, and only he made me feel so proud of our Heritage, our Blackness, our being born in Mississippi, when times were so much fun, our youth.

“ To the Family of Mr. Michael Frank Tabb, I would like to extend my condolences to you during this time of difficulty. During times when we experience the loss of a loved one in death we need the comfort of the words found in God's word the Bible at Psalms 146:5,9 which assures us that God has loving concern for bereaved ones. Therefore, I encourage you in the days ahead to look to his word for comfort and support.
