

Mrs. Mildred Branch

June 12, 1940 - July 3, 2013

Mildred Branch was born on June 12, 1940 in Pearson, Mississippi. She was the second child born to the union of Dave (deceased) and Luella Johnson Norris (deceased). Mildred attended school and began her spiritual journey at Sweet Rest Church of Christ Holiness, U.S.A. while in Pearson.

In 1950, Mildred and her family moved to Detroit, Michigan. She attended Detroit Public Schools, graduating from Northwestern High School in 1958. She attended Wayne State University and was later united in holy matrimony with Major Branch.

Mildred continued her spiritual journey at Zion Chapel Church of Christ Holiness, USA and, in later life, she found peace and strength as a dedicated and baptized servant of Jehovah.

Mildred was a kind and generous woman, described by many as having "a heart of gold." She had a strong work ethic and a continuing desire to share with and uplift others. Her working career began as a baby-sitter in her teens. She was blessed to have a 35 year career with the United States Postal Service while managing her own real estate properties. From baby-sitting to being a postal employee to owning and managing her own real estate properties, Mildred transformed herself into a successful business person.

“ Sister O. Baskin, I know that you trust only in the living God and that you can and will find comfort in knowing that your life was an example of Gods Love toward your sister. Please Continue trusting because Gods way is the only way he will give you peace that know man understandeth. I was and am still praying for your family.

God Bless
