

Mrs. Mildred Clifton

April 4, 1929 - December 28, 2013

Mildred Clifton was born on April 4, 1929 in Pinebuff, Arkansas to the late James and Margie Cannon. She was the second oldest of 11 children.

She was baptized at an early age in Arkansas and later moved to Detroit, Michigan where she met and married Herbert Wilson. To that union five children were born.

Mildred joined Bethany Baptist Church and later in her life joined Friendship Baptist Church where she served the Lord and was the president of the Mother's Board.

Mildred was a loving and dedicated mother who put family first. She loved to laugh, travel and shop. She spent quality time with her grandchildren and took them almost every where she went.

She continued her education and graduated from Hazel Park High school and later became a certified home health aide and a nurse. She enjoyed working with her patients and their families.

Mildred was very active as a lifelong member of the NAACP. Mildred was self-sufficient. She owned her own party stores, grocery stores and real estate.

Later in her life, she remarried the late Willie Clifton. They really loved and enjoyed each other until his death.

Mildred departed this life on December 28, 2013.
