

Mrs. Mildred Reynolds

December 7, 1942 - December 8, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Mildred Reynolds:

Mildred Reynolds was born December 7, 1942 in Detroit Michigan to Ernestine Perry and William Jones Sr., who preceded her in death. She was the oldest of four children who preceded her in death William (Butch) Jones Jr., Leonard (Todd) Jones and Christine Perry.

Mildred was a fun, loving, free spirit, kind, good natured woman. She attended Detroit Public Schools, she graduated from Northern High School, and she was very popular in school. She loved to sing and roller skate. After graduating she attended Wayne County Community College where she earned a degree becoming a Registered Nurse, working at various hospitals in Detroit.

In 1956 Mildred met Charles McSwain, they loved each other and from that love Deanna Denise Jones (Dee-Dee T) was born. In 1959 she married Howard Reynolds and out of that union Delores V. Reynolds was born. She met Bernard Allen where Keveen Reynolds was born from that union. In 1979 she remarried to Shelly Asbell who preceded her in death. From that union Jennifer Asbell-Rapley was born.

In the late 1960's Mildred began a singing career both lead and backup singer with various Motown groups: The Surpulatives, The Sophisticates and with Patti Labelle and the Blue Bells, she travel all over the world performing and even performed at the Apollo Theater where she performed with the group called The Sophisticates.

Mildred accepted Christ into her life, where she attended Perfecting Church and later made Greater Grace her home church.

Mildred departed this life suddenly and unexpectedly on December 8, 2015.

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Mildred Reynolds

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM