“ My family moved onto Stoepel in 1967. The Thompson family received us with open arms. We thank you all for you love. We share in you grief.

What a beautiful lady. Kindness, beauty, style, and grace, are only just a few ways to describe her actions. The Halley family was blessed to have her as a neighbor on Stoepel and be a part of her church family.

Thank you to the Thomson-Smith family for sharing her with the world. She made us all better people. " Hold to God's unchanging hands" May God bless us all and may she rest in peace.

“ You will always be remembered as Mrs. Thompson by all the kids in the neighborhood and a mother to all of us. Thinking of you brings back so many of my childhood memories. Many of which brings back joy and laughter. You loved us all and we loved and respected you. May God take you into his eternal arms. Rest in peace.
