

Mr. Milvert M. "Buster" Farris

December 11, 1943 - September 9, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Milvert M. "Buster" Farris:

Milvert "Buster" Farris was born on December 11, 1943, to risen angels John Howard Farris, Sr. and Lucinda Kuykendall in Tillatoba, MS. After birth, he was phenomenally raised by Ninner Kuykendall who preceded him in death. Milvert was baptized early in his childhood and has always recognized God as his savior.

Buster attained his grade school education through the Oakland Public School system in Mississippi. Afterward, he was enlisted into the United States Army where he learned valuable character traits such as discipline, perseverance, and strength. He would then go on to use that experience to further his career at Chrysler as a laborer. Buster retired from Chrysler after 44 excellent years of hard work, dedication, and commitment. However, his most fulfilling role came as the husband of 44 amazing, outstanding, and momentous years to the late and great Mary Ree Farris who preceded him in death. He has now gained everlasting wings after a hard-fought battle with cancer residing with his beloved once again.

During his lifetime, Buster loved watching all sports but favored baseball and football. Of those sports, his favorite teams were the University of Michigan Wolverines, Detroit Lions, and Detroit Tigers. In his free time, he also enjoyed reading, doing daily newspaper puzzles, and pinching people until they were frustrated. Most notable of all, Buster always shared his wisdom with those around him serving as a pillar to lean on whenever you were in need.

“ My good friend for 62 years, so many fund memory too numerous to list. As stated, i am not saying good bye but so long as a result of a decision he made to accept Jesus Christ as lord and Savior therefore, to be absent from the body is to be presence before the Lord. As childhood friends we spent many days and nights at each other home,breaking bread together, playing basketball, walking up and downs the gravel and dirt road in Mississippi. Through those experiences a bond that can never be broken. I will have not had another relationship like had since that time. I will always be grateful and thanks for my good Milvert F arris "To God be the Glory).
