“ I want to express my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of Alexia and Jamel. I am deeply saddened to see their young lives cut so short. I'm sure, like any parent, you set goals for their future. The bible is the only place we can find true comfort during this difficult time.

When we hear a eulogy, it should give comfort. But it doesn't. Why? Even though we die, it is something unnatural. Because, in our DNA pattern, Jehovah put the desire to live and never die. . Ecclesiastes 3:11 "God has put eternity into man's mind" or "their heart." What REALLY gives us hope? Not words to stir our emotions, but the truth found in the bible, which gives us hope that you will see Alexia and Jamel again. John 5:28-29 "all those in the memorial tombs WILL come out"..

Revelations 21:3-5. (My favorite scripture) Let me tell you why. "The tent of God (or God's protection) will be with mankind. He will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." Does that include your tears, your mourning, or your pain. Yes it does. Why can we be confident that this will come true? Verse 5 says, "Look! I am making all things new." "these words are faithful and true."

Ecclesiastes 7:2 "Better is it to go to the house of mourning than to go to the banquet house. We all should take this to heart." After a funeral, many are rushing to get to the "banquet house" (or place where there will be food) This scripture is important, because when attending a funeral, it gives us an opportunity to reflect on our life course. We need to meditate on how we live our life now. Our everlasting life is in the hands of Jehovah God. We may die, but Jehovah by means of Jesus can restore us back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:26, talks about death being an enemy. We hate it. But it's there. Death "with be brought to nothing", says the bible.

I hope that the words from the bible can give you comfort and know *that others are thinking of you. If you are interested in a free home bible study, please contact www.watchtower.org.##imported-begin##

“ I had a glimpse of Heaven- It was in a dream-Such splendor overwhelmed me-It was such a beautiful sight. I dreamed I saw the angels and heard them sweetly sing, and saints had gathered all around to worship Christ he King. And then I saw you beautiful children who had entered into Heaven;s door, and they appeard so joyful that I hoped to see much more. But it was just a glimpse of Heaven, a land quite far away that I know one day you will rejoice with your children in heaven one day. God Bless you are forever in my prays. “ It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.

“ *The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love.
May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love.##imported-begin##Markham & Marcia “ Although you were so young Alexeia 10 and Jamel only 5 years old, you left us way too soon. You will be missed by many but God said "come little children & follow Me". You were picked little rose buds for God's most beautiful garden.

“ *A rush of wings
they flutter high to touch the sun and kiss the sky
two precious butterflies are with us now
No more a caterpillar upon a leaf (Alexeia & Jamel) with angels wings two soaring butterflies upon a cloud with us they sing and reach out and touch the face of God. May he keep you forever in his loving arms.*
