“ I believe that when we lose someone close to us they still live through us and give us strength.

Do not stand by my grave and weep

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow

I am the Diamond glints on snow

I am the sunlight on ripened grain

I am the soft refreshing rain.

When you awake in the morning's hush

I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight

I am the stars that shine at night.

“ I'm writing you because I'm very sorry about your loss. I know you are hurting and at this this time it's hard on the family emotionally. God knows that and he would never what us to feel that way. He wants us to be happy and soon god will bring about a time where this will never happen again, please read revelations 21:4. God loves you and Ananda Diamond Bell.##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....." May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie." (Titus1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ *With Heartfelt Sympathy,
There are places within our hearts that can only be filled with memories. And there are places in our souls that can only be healed by the gentle hands of time...
May your family find comfort knowing that my family's thoughts are with you during this difficult time. And may you find peace knowing that there is one more angel in heaven.
Your loss is deeply felt!##imported-begin##Kalil Whitehead and Family##imported-end##*

“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God's Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus' words to Martha after Lazarus' death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn Harper##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ To the family and friends of Miss Ananda Diamond Bell, I express heartfelt condolences at this time of grief, please know that Jehovah and his son Jesus have made provisions to undo all the tribulations that we are faced with. Isaiah 26:19 tells us: "Your dead ones will live again. a corpse of mine...they will rise up." We can be confident because Jehovah cannot lie... Titus 1:2##imported-begin##V.G.##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Bell family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ This is not what our Grand Creator purposed for us to live a few years and die. Jehovah know how deep our grief is. We long for the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice that has been silenced. He is merciful and kind. He will comfort our grieving hearts and wipe the tears from our eyes. He understands us, because he created us. (Revelation 7:16-17) He is the one who tells us: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) “For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Bell family,
Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Ananda Diamond. I'm writing to you about the wonderful hope that the bible holds out for a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed it this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." The bible helps us to appreciate that this possibility will be a reality. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##
