

Mr. Mitchell Robinson III

November 10, 1932 - January 29, 2019

His Story:

Mitchell Robinson III was born on November 10, 1932 in Thomasville, Georgia to the late Armon Robinson and Ethel May (Ivey) Robinson.

Mitchell received his education from the Thomasville, Georgia school district. Approaching high school it became a necessity that Mitch help his family tend the fields, thus being thrust into the work-life.

Mitchell started a family early as a young man and had his first daughter, Doris Mae Armster of Thomasville, Georgia in 1949.

He later married Mildred (Scott) Robinson and from this Union five children were born.

After Mildred's unfortunate passing, Mitch delved into his work and became a truck driver for Famous Cleaners where he met the late Clytee (Scott) Robinson and was joined in holy matrimony for 58 years. To this union two children were born.

As a Chrysler man, Mitch learned mechanics and loved working on his cars and trucks. He prided the care and landscaping of his home and enjoyed many summer hours outside basking in the beauty of his work.

Anyone who really knew Mitch, was well aware of his love of music. If he wasn't sitting on his front porch, or nailing something together in the backyard, you could find him in the sanctuary of his basement, where he found solace in his blues music.

Mitch retired from Chrysler after 25 years of pristine service in December, 1995.

Mitchell departed this life on January 29, 2019.
