

Mr. Monroe Charles Anderson

April 17, 1939 - March 22, 2025

Monroe Charles Anderson was born April 17, 1939, in Baker, Louisiana, to David Sr. and Lu Edna Anderson.

Monroe graduated from State High School. Before moving to Detroit in 1965, he married Claudette and fathered three sons and two daughters. He also became the father of three stepchildren. In time, he remarried and became a father to a sixth child, a daughter.

Monroe worked as a production worker and a Hi-Lo driver at a General Motor Plant in Warren, Michigan, until his retirement in 2003 after serving 38 years. Monroe loved to travel back to his hometown to visit family in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He enjoyed bowling, cooking, building projects, watching sports, tennis, and golf. He enjoyed traveling South the most.

Monroe departed this life on March 22, 2025. He was preceded in death by his wife Claudette; brothers Willie Lee, Spencer, David II, and Lu Allen; his sisters Clotier and Janice; and his stepchildren Cynthia and Freddie.

He leaves to cherish his memories his brother Leo, sisters Gladys and Margaret, his children Ronald, Edna (Benny), Dion (wife), Tawana, Mona, Monroe Jr. (wife), Robin, Nikki (Manny), Charlotte, 22 grandkids, 15 great-grandkids, and great-great-grandkids, and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, and others.
