“ As a school teacher, I worked with Mr. Hill at George Washington Carver Academy in Highland Park, when he was on the Security Detail. He was always so very helpful and greeted us all with a daily smile. He taught our young men how to look and dress professionally by tucking in their shirts and wearing a belt. Forever grateful for thr example that he set and modeled. He will be missed. To his twin boys and family, we are praying for you. Rest in peace.
