

Mr. Montez Dante McKnight

August 30, 1990 - August 12, 2013

The Journey:

Montez “Monty or Tez” Dante McKnight was born on August 30, 1990 in Detroit, Michigan, to proud parents, Monique Montez Robinson and Felix James McKnight.

Montez accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized at New Birth Baptist Church in Inkster, Michigan.

Monty attended Detroit Public Schools and went on to attend Everest College, where he maintained over a 3.0 GPA, making the “Dean’s List” and later made “The President’s List” for maintaining over a 3.5 GPA.

Monty became a certified medical assistant and hoped to, someday, become a registered nurse. Monty loved cars and movies. He kept his cars immaculately clean and had a movie quote for just about any conversation. He was also a great cook and spent lots of his time cooking and cleaning for the elderly members of his family. Monty lived life to the fullest. Always dreaming big and sparing no expense, even as a small child, he was known for his giving heart.
