“ Dear Aunt Nancy,

It is sad to know that Aaron has now passed. Losing family is a task that we all have to encounter at some point in our lives and we rely on God, family, and friends to help us get through it. Please take it easy and know that my prayers are with you.

Sincerely,

Lori (Grice) Thomas##imported-begin##Lori Thomas##imported-end##

“ To the Fowler Family: My family and I were shocked to heard the news about Aaron. We have known and loved him for many years. When ever he walked thru our door(looking for food):) their was always a smile on his face. Aaron was a joy to be around. He will trully be missed. Our deepest sympathy goes to his family.##imported-begin##Synona Scott & Family##imported-end##

“ Aaron E.Fowler is one of my favorite cousins. His Dad Eugene Fowler, (Uncle Bootie)was my favorite uncle who not only raised and instilled morals and values in my cousins, Aaron, Mark, Kim Audrey and Nolie, his children, but also very much in me. My cousins were more like my brothers and sisters and I thank God for allowing me to be around them throughout my childhood years. Aaron was specially loved by many because of his sensivity, much loved for everyone and his wonderful sense of humor. Aaron I miss you dearly, and even though you left us too soon, I know God makes No mistakes and you're in a better place with GOD, and I won't question why, I just look forward to seeing you again when GOD bring us all back together. Love your cousin always

“ Mr. Aaron was my EMU buddy. He would always have a story to share with me about his days at the University. Funny at first, I am going to miss those. I'll also miss when I would call his house and he would say "Hey daaawlin"...lol. Mr. Aaron will always be in my heart. My love goes out to his family and friends during this time. God bless his soul, he's is a much better place now.

In Love,
