“ Oh, I'm so sorry for the loss of your father Abery and Myron. He was great! I remember after meeting Abery at church and singing in the choir, his Dad brought him over my parents home in Detroit to meet them and he was driving a bad Acura Integra I thought that was so different and special that a father accompany his son to visit a girl that he liked from church. Most times, guys would come over with their mothers to visit or sisters. I can remember my Dad telling him to pop the hood, so that he can see what engine it was running with. My dad was a motor head and drag racer at that time. But, I thought that was so different for a father to meet his son's new girlfriend and family too.

I remember thinking that Abery will mature just fine looking at his Dad. He rocked!

I'm so sorry for your loss guys. I have buried my Father and Mother many years apart, but no less, difficult to deal with daily. I still miss them both everyday. My Aunts stand in for them as my Mom requested that her sisters look out for us throughout our lives, as she had cancer and would not be around for us ever again. Thank the Lord for family. They are still here to help guide us through life. We are great full and blessed for each of them.

May the Lord keep His hand on you during this difficult time Abery and Myron. Bless you.
