“ To the Newsome family...Alan, will be terribly missed. Alicia, keep your head held extremely high. I don't know what it feels like to lose a sibling, but I know how it feels to lose someone close. I lost my brother when I was five years old, but I don't remember him. which is good for me, I guess. Remember God makes no mistakes. However he needed Alan to come and join Chris in Paradise. I look forward to this family having better days ahead of them.##imported-begin##Karmen Murray##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Those we have held in our arms for a little while, we will hold in our hearts forever! (author unknown). Although I don't know you personally, I still have felt and understand the pangs of death, for who among mankind has not lost a loved one to this 'enemy?'. (1 Corinthians 15:26). As you reflect on the life of your precious loved one, Alan, his legacy and the memories he has left you to treasure, may your hearts be comforted in knowing that Our Loving God also cares for you (1Peter 5:7) He is mindful of your pain, your grief and sorrow and he is anxious to mend your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots. (Psalm 147:3) He promises that: "...the hour is COMING when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29). So, yes, even though tears will flow and hearts will pain for a while, God promises that he will soon lovingly 'wipe away the tears from all faces and DEATH will be no more! (Rev. 21:4, Isaiah 25:8) Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
