“ To the Allen Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Alexander. May the God of all comfort give you the strength beyond what is normal to endure. Death at any age is an enemy because it robs us our loved ones and leaves it's survivors, the family, devastated! However, our Loving Creator has promised mankind that He will destroy death...forever (1Cor.15:26), Revelation 21:3,4) In the days and weeks ahead as you recall loving memories of Alexander, take to heart that he is also in God's memory too, and that very soon he will awaken at the Master's command (John 5:28,29). In the interim, may these Bible Truths bring you much comfort knowing they come from our Loving God, Jehovah who cares very deeply for us and who cannot lie (Titus 1:2, 1Peter 5:7). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ We love you, and we will miss you very much. As brothers, we had good times together.

We were glad we saw you when we were in Detroit. You would tease me as always. We were laughing, and having a great time, talking about old times. I am going to miss that.

Your brother, Jerry & Delores

“ To the Family:
My deepest condolences at the homegoing of your loved one. I first meet Uncle Al when he came to Niagara Falls in a blinding snowstorm to give me my wife of now 36 years. I always admired his love of family and honest tell it like it is attitude. He will be missed but remembered lovingly.

The Love of Jesus will keep he and us. Peace and Love

“ Love never dies so we can all remember and continue to feel the love given by Uncle Al. Although we can't see him now we will be united again. I am so thankful God allowed us to share the life of Uncle Al and I celebrate all the years we had him. I pray that God gives those closest to him peace and lets you feel his love at this time.
