“ It's always so hard to say good-bye but in this case, it seems excruciating. You were my favorite of all my Great Uncles. I wish I would've gotten the chance to tell you this and not have to type it. You always said that my smile could light up a room and it's funny because I thought the same thing about you. I wish we could've had more time with each other but God knew best. God saw your suffering, He saw your pain. I know you're in a much better place now. I know the Angels are rejoicing. I know I will as well, when we meet again. I love you Uncle E.
