“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Carroll###imported-end##

“ Dear Brooks family please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one Mr. Alfred. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14) " If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held to all mankind. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.###imported-begin###Jackie Brezzell###imported-end##

“ Dear Family: As you reflect on the life of your loved one, Alfred, his legacy and the memories he has left you to treasure, may your hearts be comforted in knowing that Our Loving God Jehovah also cares for you. (1Peter 5:7) He is mindful of your pain, your grief and sorrow and he is anxious to mend your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots. (Psalm 147:3, Rev. 21:4) He understands our desire to be with our loved ones again and will fulfill that desire by means of a resurrection. John 5:28,29 states: “...the hour is COMING when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out...” What a wonderful hope we have of seeing our loved ones again! So, yes, even though tears will flow and hearts will pain for a while, God promises that the 'tribulation' will be 'momentary and light' compared with the wonderful future he has prepared for those who love him. Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##Joyce Jones##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read about the loss of Alfred and I wanted to extend my condolences to your family. We are encouraged by the fact that God knows and feels our pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22). Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29).##imported-begin##T. Cherry##imported-end##
