“ *To The Families
Of Loved Ones Lost*

*Innocence stolen from faces
Bright futures forever lost.
Came with a tearful cost.
A light from your hearts is dimmed,
A voice is forever silenced
The pain you all feel,
I can see in your eyes.
In your tears, in your voices,
And in the hurt in your whys.
But despite all the anger,
We must keep our faith alive,
For the ones you all lost,
They really did survive.
They dance across your memories,
And leave footprints in your thoughts.
And looking upon you now,
They can see you love them lots.
They may have left this world,
But they never went alone.
For in the kingdom of our hearts,
They sit upon a diamond throne.
Their spirits are now free,
And God embraced them with open arms,
They flourish in a safe place,
Where they live without worries or harms.
And in God's grace,
They are showered with praise and love to give,
Can you imagine a better paradise,
Where you would want your child to live?
For life's greatest gift,
Is our place in heaven above,
A place where happiness thrives,
And hearts are filled with love.*

*So take your time to cry,
And let emotions run deep,
But never forget that in your hearts,
The memories you will eternally keep.
And send your love to those in need,
And as the hands of time continue to turn,
It will become much easier to rise.
All we can do is miss them,
And be happy that they are free,
And focus on the fact,
That the future resides in you and me.
For we all have the power,
In our integrity and how we pray,
And always, always remember,
That after the darkest nights,
Rises the brightest day.*

In my prayers and thoughts

“ To the Family and Friends of Allen, I would like to send my sincere condolences. At times like this it is very hard to find the right words to say. However the Bible tells us at Isaiah 26:19 "your dead ones will live ...they will rise up". Jehovah always tells the truth, he does not lie. Allen can rest from his labors now. We must continue to struggle to survive this wicked world, with the crime, violence, war, sickness and death. God did not intend for us to live this way. The bible gives us much hope and comfort ". 2 Corinthian 1:3-4. Jehovah is the, "God of all comfort" and HE helps us understand how He and Jesus Christ feel about death. Death is an enemy that pursues us all. None of us can out run it. Jehovah is far more powerful than death. Jehovah is our rescuer who has already shown (by Jesus resurrection) that he can defeat this enemy. 1 Corinthians 15.26 (As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing). We WILL be reunited with our loved ones by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in peace and happiness in the very near future. John 5:28-29, Jesus said "all those in the memorial tombs will come out" and there will be "a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous". “ Sorry to hear about the passing of Allen. Its sad to see someone so young that had so much to look forward to have to pass have to pass so soon. Even though their is grief their is also hope. Notice what it says at John 5:28,29 & Acts 24:15 their speaks of a resurrection where we can see our dead loved ones again in a world free from sicknes & pain.
