“ Uncle Alvin I will miss you very much, I will always cherish the times we had when I was little, especially the time I gave you and Aunt Mary a hot foot, while baby sitting for your brother Paul & Liz. We always had a good laugh remembering that time whenever we saw each other. May you rest in peace, your nephew Malcolm, wife Gwen and daughter TaShaunna.##imported-begin##Paul Malcolm Jolivette##imported-end##

“ To my Uncle Alvin:

I'm very thankful to God that we were born in this family together. We shared a love that was instilled in us from children. But most of all, I am grateful for the times we shared as adults. I will always cherish those moments--rest my uncle--for the Bible says "to be absent from this body is to immediately be in the presence of God."

“ Uncle Alvin - I am going to really miss you. You always had been a very special uncle to me and Paul. I am going to miss you soooo much! You always stopped by to check up on me and talked with me and Paul since i was a young teenager. When i was going through rough times you would pick me up and take me for rides to talk with me and you never stopped and i will never forget your words of encouragement! Xavier and Asia will miss you too with all the icecream you use to bring by the house and i ended up eating it myself!- 20 lbs later. Asia told me yesterday when she gave me a hug that you are gone to Heaven and yes I told her you are in Heaven. I love you.###imported-begin###Nessay###imported-end##

“ Uncle Alvin you have left behind so many people who adored you in so many ways. I will forever remember the day that you and Trease walked in the hospital room to see me on the day I gave birth to your great~great triplet nephews. You made me feel so special. I wish they would have had the opportunity to know you. I know I drove you crazy @ Bern's wedding with my camera and hugging you every time you turned around but now I am so glad I did! You will always be remembered and loved.###imported-begin###Bernadette Guidry###imported-end##

“ We were all looking forward to your next visit to California. I still remember the conversations in the garage and over the phone. How you shared your dreams and history. I promise you, Nanette will be well taken cared of. Please continue to watch over us and protect us. I'm sure your up there kicking it with the "big dogs". Teaching them about the latest style and probably a few dance moves. Just kidding... You will be missed.##imported-begin##Freeman##imported-end##

“ Daddy, Daddy, Daddy..... You were by far the BEST FATHER a daughter could ever had. You made me feel like a princess when you escorted me down the aisle on my wedding day. You looked like King, all dress in black and white. You were also there for me to talk to me and assure me that my family and I would be ok, after we were devastated by Hurricane Katrina. By far you were and will always be my best friend. The late night conversation we would have puts my heart at ease that you are in a much better place, spending your eternal life with Grandpa Paul, Big Mom and other family and friends. I can just see the sparkle in your eyes and the smile on your face as you approached the pearly gates. Your grandkids; TW, Alexis and Dillon truly loves you, and will miss you dearly. Your son-in-law, Thomas who only had a short time to spend with you, is truly honored to have had the opportunity to know such an awesome man. One who can cook anything and fix anything. I Love You Daddy, for you are my King, rest in peace, because you are home now!

“ Daddy as your first born nothing has been more gratifying than to have been your first experience as a father. I am so blessed to have always been able to say daddy and I will miss hearing your voice say "yes sweetie" for the rest of my life. I love you so dearly and will replay your sweet sweet voice in my heart and mind forever. I thank God for you Daddy. Rest in holy comfort and peace until we are joined again.
