“ Dear Clayton family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Anderson. I'm writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Anderson. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Clayton family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I extend my sincere condolences to you on the death of your loved one, Anderson. The Bible teaches us that death is mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love so much. But, our Loving God also tells us in his Word, the Bible, that he will (soon) destroy death...forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26) And, he promises to resurrect those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Mankind will then be able to live out his life, here on earth, as he originally intended...”The righteous shall inherit the land (earth),and dwell therein forever”, (Psalm 37:29; Matthew5:5) free of sickness, (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4) May knowing what God will do shortly, bring comfort to your hearts today and in the days ahead. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
