“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Andrew and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Pslams 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,

“ *Anthony-
Words cannot express how profoundly sad I am for you and your family. We can never know Gods plan for our lives as we don't have the understanding. All that we can do is remain faithful to Him and His word. I pray that despite this great loss, that you and yours can find comfort in His love.###imported-begin##Jeffery Walker###imported-end##*

“ To Tony and Family,

Words cannot begin to express how sorry we are for your loss. Although we lean not on our own understanding, through your time of sorrow, please know that if you need anything; an ear to listen, arms to hold you up, or words to help you through, we are here for you. May God embrace and keep you in your time of need.

With love and prayers

“Gone much too soon...just barely 22 years. It's just not long enough,when our Grand Creator wanted us to live forever. For now put your trust in "the God of comfort"(2Corinthians 1:3,4),He will comfort you in all of your tribulations. I will be praying that you will be strengthened with the needed courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. I did not personally know your Andrew,I too am a parent and hoped it would bring you a measure to know that others care about your loss also.##imported-begin##Sylvia Colston##imported-end##

“I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. For more information on the scriptural hope, please visit: [www.watc

“ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "Yes". Our Loving Creator (Psalm 83:18) knows the pain that death causes us, so he has promised that he will destroy death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26) He also tells us that "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out", including your loved one, Andrew. (John 5:28,29; John 11:25) He will swallow up death forever (Isaiah 25:8) and will do away with anything and everything that causes us distress (Revelation 21:4) May the God of all comfort give you strength beyond what is normal to cope with your loss now as you await the fulfillment of his Word soon to come true (Titus 1:2; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Minister Tony; I like so many others are sadden at this major lost in your family. Sometimes the Lord will test us in ways that will leave us speak-less and even in this hour all we have is him to lend on for strenght and counsel.Even though we don't understand, we have no other choice but to say amen. We will continue to keep you and your family in prayer.
