“ Terry, Anitra and the McLilley/Glimps family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. We all know that Tony is now where we all hope to be one day...He had the foundation in Christ and the belief in His promise for our eternal life with him in Heaven. The human, and selfish part of us grieve because we will miss Tony's physical presence, but we should rejoice in knowing that he has reached his peace. We love you all...God Bless.##imported-begin##Jacqueline, Andrea, Raphael Poindexter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I did not know your loved one, Anthony, personally, but I was touched at heart when I saw his pictures in the listings today. What a handsome young man! I can't even begin to imagine your pain and sorrow, but, as a fellow parent, I do care and share your sorrow. I know that words can offer little comfort for you today, but please take heart in the fact that the God of All comfort knows and understands your pain. (2 Cor. 1:3,4) In the Bible at John 5:28, 29 he promises a resurrection for our loved ones who have died. And, God also promises that one day soon, DEATH will be no more! (Revelation 21:4). In the days ahead I pray that your hearts and minds can find comfort in what God is going to do shortly and I hope that it will help you to see that a beautiful future for obedient mankind lies just ahead! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Hello Terry,

I share my prayers and condolences with you, your daughter, father, and the rest of the family. Please take comfort in knowing that “God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble (from Psalm 46). Your Son, Anthony was a blessing from God! While he was with you for only a little while, his purpose is fulfilled. Your Heavenly Father loves you as you love your children and he will not forsake you. Be still and know that God is real, he is mighty, and he will take care of you and your daughter.

As a coworker at the University of Michigan Hospital, you shared some of the core values that you used to raise your children and some of the struggles you faced through sickness and economic uncertainty. Through it all, Terry you kept the faith worked through challenging circumstances to provide a loving and caring environment for your son and daughter.
