“ Andi and Family:

I realize this is a difficult time for you. But, I also know that God knows and hears your prayers, and understand all your pain and every tear shedded.

I have thought of you often and prayed as well that God strengtens you and provide all that you need.

“ I am sure this is what Arlan would say to us if he could.... Give what Left of Me Away Now that I am gone remembers me with a smile and laughter..... And if you need to cry, cry with your brother or sister who walks in grief beside you. And when you need me, put your arms around anyone and give to them what you need to give to me. There are so many who need so much. I want to leave you something, something much better than words or sounds. Look for me in the people I've known, loved or helped in some special way. Let me live in your heart as well as your mind..... You can love me most by letting your love reach out to our loved ones. By embracing them and living in their love. Love does not die, people do. So, when all that's left of me is love, Give me away as best as you can.....

“ We didn't stay in touch as much as I would have loved to, but we did talk the later part of last year and I felt the distant love between us. You will always be remembered as the kind-hearted cousin who told me the truth, no matter what!!!##imported-begin##Janice Burns-Jones##imported-end##

“ In your dark moments consider the wonder of God's royal majesty. Be encouraged that the omnipotent Lord reigns over everything.

Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved. Ps 55:22, ESV. You are in our hearts and prayers. Angie, Jeff and family##imported-begin##The Beatty Family##imported-end##

“ We talked on Thursday, You, Thomas and I, making plans to return to Michigan on the 15th. We laughed, knowing how much fun e were going to have on this road trip home. Sunday you were gone.....God had other plans for you.....

I will miss you Dear Cousin
