“ Pops,
I miss you more than words can say. I was not prepared to say good bye so soon. No worda can express the way that I feel. I fell so much hurt and pain. But I now understand that God is preparing you for your final resting place with him. Right now... that's the best place to be. I Love You but God loves you more. All I ask is for you to save me a spot. I know it won't be hard for you to make friends, but me on the other hand... Oh boy that is something different. I will just look for you when I get there. Till then you will never be forgotten. I Love You POPS

“ To my big sister, Ella Ruth & Family. First and foremost let us say how much we love you. We are so sorry to hear about the loss of your husband and our brother-in-law. Even more sorry, we regret that we will not be able to be there to celebrate his homegoing. Remember life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be, a resting place along the road to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay. Our destination is a place far greater than we know, for some, the journey's quicker, for some, the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward and find an everlasting peace, together with the Lord. Sis, we'll here for you, ALWAYS. Please give our sympathies to the kids, grandkids, cousins, brother and sisters of Zeke. God bless you Zeke, may your journey find you everlasting peace. “ To Mrs. Edwards and Family

“WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU”

When I must leave you for a little while please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same, feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways, reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!

“GOING TO HEAVEN”

When I am gone, release me, let me go I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourselves to me with tears, just be happy that we had some years. I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone. Do grieve a while for me if you must then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so keep our memories within your hearts. I won't be far away, for life goes on, so if you need me call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me I'll be near, and if you listen with your heart you will hear, all of my love around so soft and dear. And then when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say welcome home.

“ Brother, I will hold you closely now, sharing remembrances that will always mean so much, recalling the special times that will live on in my heart especially that time you told on Tina and I when we were on the rail road track trying to learn how to smoke. Both you and Arthur Lee was the father figures in my life, you both always looked out for our family. It is so hard for me to express how I feel without trying to hold my tears back. Just knowing you are now at peace give me some comfort. Knowing in time my sorrow will lessen and precious memories will remain. One thing we all did know is our family loved each other. Give Mama, Uncle George, Aunt Fannie Mae, Arthur Lee, Uncle Earl, Little George a big hug and kiss for me. You know I loved you, but God loved you more. “ Unc, The pain that is here now will eventually pass. You will forever live on in memories and in spirit. It was truly a blessing to have you as an uncle and I'm forever grateful for that. To the rest of my family: We will get through this time of grieving through prayer and love. Uncle Zeke would not want us to be sad for long. Instead of mourning his loss, we shall celebrate his life and all of the great memories that we were fortunate to share with him.###imported-begin###Notta (a.k.a poot)###imported-end###

“ Uncle Zeke,

Thank you for being an anchor in our lives. You displayed to us that it was good to be individuals. We did not have to conform and try to be like everybody else. Not only did you show us that working hard was important. You also showed us how to enjoy life and live it to the fullest! We knew that we could be real with you, because you would accept us and love us no matter what! You were our protector, our counselor, our everything. I can't imagine saying Aunt Ella without AND Uncle Zeke. It is a hard pill to swallow, but I know God has a bigger and better plan for you. I am so grateful he allowed us to share you with him this long. Give Grandma, Uncle George, Aunt Fannie Mae, Aunt Annie and Uncle Aurthur Lee a kiss for me. I know they were waiting to embrace you at those Beautiful Pearly Gates. I love You!

“ Ella & Kids,

Zeke was a great man who showed me much kindness and love. I am forever grateful to him for opening his home and heart to me in my early years in Detroit.

You remember, Ella. We were there in your studio apartment - you and Zeke, Von and Barbara in the one bedroom; Willie and Tyke and I on the Murphy bed in the living room.

The physical space was limited, but the love and sharing and encouragement I got from Zeke and from you was boundless. The money was tight, but we were treated like guests at a royal palace. That is a life experience that I will never forget, and 'brother-in-law' will always have a place of honor in my heart.##imported-begin##Dawna Edwards-Rodgers##imported-end##
