“ To the Lee family, you are in my thoughts, prayers, and hearts today and for many days after. I mourn his passing and send my condolences from Lagos, Nigeria. Deb called me with the news. Lee was the finest man and neighbor I have met here in USA. Please know that LORD JESUS will carry you through this difficult and painful transition. After all his hard work here on earth Lee has gone back to the one who gave him life. The LORD has an excellent helper in Lee. Lee has earned a place with his heavenly Father. He will never be forgotten. Lee's gardening tips I will treasure. His view on politics and his love for Detroit in particular I will miss. Mrs. Flora, you were blessed with the love of your youth. What memories you have to treasure. Lee's spirit lives on through you and your children and grandchildren. A strong legacy. What a beautiful and blessed family.##imported-begin##Samuel Okoh (Lagos, Nigeria)##imported-end##

“ May your hearts be comforted during this difficult time. Our heavenly father Jehovah never intended us to live a short while and die. Surley, Mr. Lee only lived a short while. Our Grand Creator put everlasting life in front of our first parents and now us. Rely on Him for comfort. The resurrection hope is very near. Revelations 21:3-5 tells us that soon we will mourn no more and death will be a thing of the past.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##

“ A silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why he left this earth so soon, or why he left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that he died, but that he lived. And that his life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die. May Go Bless each of you, and hold you in his arms.##imported-begin##Jean Cook, Dean Drake, Betty Smith, and Jimmie L. Fuller##imported-end##

07 February 2011-Words are inadequate to express the sadness I feel about Art's death. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I fondly recall the memories of how Frank and I lived for Saturday night's visits to your house to hear Art tell us jokes, tall tales and stories that made us laugh until the wee hours of the night. “ Dear Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr.Lee. Man is helpless in the face of death, for no human can provide escape for his soul from the hand of 'Sheol' or 'Hades', mankind's common grave. (Psalm 89:48) But consider: If death could keep mankind forever in its bonds, it would be stronger than God, wouldn't it? Surely we know that death is no match for our All-Wise and Loving Creator. He is the very source of life (Psalm 36:9) He has promised us in His word the Bible that one day, very soon, he is going to destroy death...forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Tears, mourning, outcry and pain will be things of the past. (Revelation 21:4) For our loved ones who have died, Jehovah God promises a resurrection to life! (John 5:28,29,11:25, Acts 24:15) May you take comfort in His Word, the Bible, and be assured that as the God of Truth, Jehovah will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
