“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Eccles family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read about the loss of Arthur and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,

“ Dear Family: For the thousands of years that mankind has known about and experienced death, it has never become easier for him to bear it. Death is truly mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love. (1 Corinthians 15:26) And now our Loving God has purposed that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) It will be no more! (Revelation 21:4) Hard to imagine though it might be, nonetheless, God has promised and we know He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). May your hearts take comfort and hope in God's word as we all await the time when “all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out”, (including Mr. Arthur) to live out their lives the way God originally intended...”even life forevermore” (John 5:28,29; Psalm 133:3; Psalm 37:29) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
