“ Hello Pat,

Last year when I was sick, your encouraging words meant a lot to me. That is when you shared your brother's illness with me and asked me to keep him in my prayers and I did that daily. Thanks for letting me share with you the last leg of your brother's earthly journey. I will keep you and your family in my daily prayers. God Bless you and yours. “ To the Garland Family, I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one, Mr. Arthur. I pray that your family can find strength and comfort from our Loving God, who promises us in Isaiah 33:24 that soon 'no resident will say "I am sick"' because "he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more". (Revelation 21:4) To our loved ones who have died he promises that soon "...all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out (John 5:28,29).What a wonderful time we have to look forward to. In the interim, may God's promises comfort you and may He prove to be your rock and strength (2Samuel 22:3, Psalm 83:18) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the Garland family: I'm sending my sincere condolences to each of you. We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our Heavenly Father Jehovah feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out.
