“ It's a little hard for me to write this and to know who i'm writing this about, I miss Jim he is like my grandfather too. I know that he is in a better place i just know that when i come back to michigan it won't feel right without him their. Chi chi you are as much as my grandmother as Jim was my grandfather. I never told you all that, now i kind of wish that i could tell both of you at the same time. I know that if i was to ever ask for anything you all would help me. I feel like i shouldn't be saying my condolences because he is equally my grandfather too. I love Jim and you love you too Chi Chi.##imported-begin##Keith E Ewing Jr. (grandson #2)##imported-end##

“ Dear Grady / Fletcher Families:

It is with an extremely heavy heart that Debbie and I send condolences to you on the loss of Mr. Grady. He was a father, confidant, advisor and friend to us and others throughout most of our life. His unrelenting candor and wit will surely be missed, but we know his memory will ALWAYS remain a significant part of those he touched throughout his life. Thank you for sharing your husband, dad, and grandfather with us--we will forever carry his memory in our hearts, while keeping you in our prayers.##imported-begin##Benjamin & Deborah Hodge##imported-end##
