“ *Mrs Bell and Tracey, my heart goes out to you and your family this morning as you gather for the funeral of Mr Bell. Although I do not know you, Mrs Bell, I have the honor and priviledge of working at Children's Mercy Hospitgal with your daughter Tracey. As you walk through the time of grief, I pray that there will be comfort in the presence of friends and family, who will surround and support you-- and that you will feel the gracious and healing love of God. “ It was my pleasure to see and talk to Arthur and Annie last year. I hadn't had any contact with the Bells in fifty years. Arthur and I go back to grade school. My prayers go to Annie and the Bell Family.

I am a better person for growing up having Unccle Arthur in my life. I can never remember a time when he was not in my life and that is a wonderful thing to have.
