“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ Asa, I never met you in person but I experienced first hand the fruit of your labor. Your legacy of commitment, care and love for your family exhibited through your wife. You two are a wonderful example of true covenant marriage and I am grateful that God allowed or paths to cross. Sheila (Atlanta)##imported-begin##Sheila Williams##imported-end##

“ To Sharon and Shannon, and the Dickason Family. May the peace and comfort of our Lord God sustain and keep you. May you find warmth and joy in the memories created with your loved one and etched upon your heart. Know that the Lord knows best, and may you find strength in knowing that He's sovereign and can never fail. I love you and am praying for you.##imported-begin##Patrice Parker##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: There are few things in life (if any) more painful to us than the loss of a family member. That pain can be almost unbearable, striking the core of our very being, and we wonder how we can move on without them in our lives. It is at times like this when we need comfort and support from our family, our friends and others like me who, although not knowing you personally, still care. But most importantly, we need assurance and hope from our Grand Creator that will give us the strength and the courage to move on with our lives confident of better days ahead. Jehovah God assures us of those better days ahead for he promises soon to ‘swallow up death forever’ (Isaiah 25:8) to resurrect our loved ones who have died (John 5:28, 29) and to “wipe out every tear from our eyes” because “...mourning, nor outcry, nor pain (will be) anymore”. Jehovah promises that He’s making “all things new” and not to worry because ‘these words are faithful and true’. (Revelation 21:4, 5). What a beautiful hope and future Jehovah has placed before us and we are assured again at Titus 1:2 that all he has promised will come true. My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Dickason family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
