“ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "Yes". Our Loving Creator (Psalm 83:18) knows the pain that death causes us, so he has promised that he will destroy death forever (1 Corinthians 15:26) He also tells us that "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out", including your loved one, Benjamin. (John 5:28,29; John 11:25) He will swallow up death forever (Isaiah 25:8) and will do away with anything and everything that causes us distress (Revelation 21:4) May the God of all comfort give you strength beyond what is normal to cope with your loss now as you await the fulfillment of his Word soon to come true (Titus 1:2; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ There is nothing to compare with the loss of a child, and only those who have known such a tragedy can truly understand your sorrow. Though words may be meaningless right now, may you find comfort in the love and concern that surrounds you from so many family members and friends who deeply care. My deepest condolences your neice Fruit.##imported-begin##Fruit##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt and deepest condolences to the Huson family. Robbye, please know we're there for you today as well as tomorrow. "Life has no smooth road for any of us; and in the bracing atmosphere of a high aim the very roughness stimulates the climber to steadier steps, till the top, over steep ways to the stars, fulfills itself". This is another life journey.
