“ Its been 5 years since my grandfather passed. Its still hard as if it was just yesterday. His memory lives on and its not a day that goes by that someone isnt thinking of him. Continue to pray for the Key family.##imported-begin##Marketa McKelvy##imported-end##

“ Hi Veronica,

When you read this I pray that you are uplifted in Jesus. Your dad's service was a homegoing and I thank Jesus that we had church and that's what Bob Key would wanted. It was nice seeing alot of people that I have not seen in a long time. Verinica I know that you know Jesus and I pray that you and your sisters and brothers will have a special relationship and stay close as a family. When it's all said and done all that you really have is Jesus and family. Your brother that spoke about meeting his sisters and brothers was very touching. I won't say it will be easy but with Jesus he can lighten the pain. You will be alright and I want you and the family to know that it's alright to cry. Bob Key will be missed and I know that he loved his family. Look up and live and remember all the times that you had together. Mrs. Key Jesus will give you the strenght to deal with the passing of your husband. Although you and Bob Key was only married a short time thank Jesus that he gave you that time with you. I know it hurts but continue to trust in Jesus and call on him because you know he's there for you. Stay strong in Jesus and remember the time that you and Bob Key shared together. You will always be in my prayers. Key family Pastor Joseph McLaughlin and family will keep you in our prayers and if there is anything we can do we are just a phone call away. I will stay in touch with you. Veronica I guess you are my sister(smile) Gog bless you all and please be encouraged and know that Bob Key is in the arms of Jesus and singing and praising the Lord.##imported-begin##Rev. “ To the Key family, I'd like to send my condolences to you. You all are and will always be in my prayers. Clara, Brenda, Tweety, and Damon. I know that we haven't seen each other in a long time, but as much time as I had spent with you, you made me feel like family. Bro. Key(as I called him) is in a better place now, with no more pain and heartache. We might not understand why, but we can't question God's plan, because he knows best. He will be missed by many. Just know that I love you guys from afar(Texas), and Bro. Key is not gone, he will always be with you in spirit. Just wait!!! We all will see him again.##imported-begin##Mrs. LaQuatta McLaughlin Brown##imported-end##

“ To The Key Family,

I want you to know that you are in my prayers in the passing of Bob Key. I want you all to know that he was well loved and known. Jesus is only a call away so call on him and he will answer you. I thank Jesus that me and my daddy Pastor Joseph McLaughlin) had the chance to go see Bob while he was in the hospital we had a great time talking about Jesus. I was happy to see him and so was daddy. You all know that Bob Key that Bob been knowing Dad and the family a long time so we will miss him also. To his wife it was nice I got to meet and talk with you. Jesus will give you strenght during this time. Continue to trust in him and remember the time that Jesus let you and him share together. To his children you know that your father loved you all just remember the times that you shared with him. Bob is resting now . You know he's singing, and having church. He loved the Lord and it showed. Veronica I know that you loved your father and you took care of him and I want you to know that he loved you more for that. Keep on praying and like I told you anything that I can do just give me a call. Please read Psalms 121. Pastor Joseph McLaughlin and family will keep you in our prayers. The last words Bob said to me was "God is good all the time". And that is true. He's still good in your our of sorrow. God bless you all and we love you. Please be encouraged.##imported-begin##Rev.
