“ Dear Brandon,
you will always be missed by us all.even though you can't phisicaly talk to us or hug us and tell us everythings is going to be okay. i know that your here every second of the day watching over us to make sure nothing goes wrong. many say you were at the wrong place at the wrong time but i know that GOD was calling you home to be with him apparently you finished what GOD wanted you to do which was to show us tthat anger doesnt solve problems. that we dont need any one but GOD to survive. that the little time in which GOD as set for that we need to stop playing around and to be serious about those at which surround you. to show others how much you really care about them.Brandon thank you for showing what friends are for.For though you are one out three of my friends.youve only made the best life yet for me. youll always be my big brother.But do you remember when you came over my house with john about 30 mins before you died. something told me to tell that you were like my big brother and that i loved but i didnt get the chance and maybe if i went to the store with you like constantly asked of me maybe i could have saved your life or maybe not but it hurts to know that your last wish to me was to go to the store with you and as much as i call myself your friend i let you down and i know that there is no way to replace that day so GOD iask for forgiveness for all the wrong that ive done in my life for Brandon your death has showed me so much in life. brandon back in june meet you in july loved you always birthday in october and got killed exactly a month later love you alays you lil sis jelly###imported-begin###angelica flippin###imported-end###
