“ To my dear cousin Eric, I am very sorry to hear of the loss of your son Brandon. It has been many years since I last saw you, for I was merely a child. You probably don't even know who I am, but it makes no real difference, as simply my desire is just to express my condolences to you and your family. I regret not having the opportunity to have met my cousin Brandon and this situation truly proves yet again, how short life really is and just how important family really is for times such as these. Please be encouraged to know that your son now rests in the arms of God and you will see him again. Trust in the Lord to bring you through. Your pain will not last always. Much love, peace, and blessings. I am your late uncle Arthur's daughter.##imported-begin##Brenda Malone##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. For more information on the scriptural hope, please visit: [www.watc

“ Dear Family: Those we have held in our arms for a little while, we will hold in our hearts forever! (author unknown). Although I don't know you personally, I still have felt and understand the pangs of death, for who among mankind has not lost a loved one to this 'enemy?'. (1 Corinthians 15:26). As you reflect on the life of your precious loved one, Brandon, his legacy and the memories he has left you to treasure, may your hearts be comforted in knowing that Our Loving God also cares for you (1Peter 5:7) He is mindful of your pain, your grief and sorrow and he is anxious to mend your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots. (Psalm 147:3) He promises that: "...the hour is COMING when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29). So, yes, even though tears will flow and hearts will pain, God promises that the 'tribulation' will be 'momentary and light' when compared with the wonderful future he has prepared for those who love him.(2 Corinthians 4:17) He (God) will wipe away the tears from all faces and DEATH will be no more! (Rev. 21:4, Isaiah 25:8) Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the Adams family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..."-Isa. 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##
