“ I'm so sorry to hear of BK's passing. I met him on my first ship after I joined the Navy and only learned of his death after trying to track him down to see how he was doing. We once took a trip together down south, he to Alabama and I on to Mississippi. Mind you now, that he let me continue on to Mississippi after dropping him off in Alabama, in his own personal vehicle. Good dude all around. He's going to be missed by us all. I know that this is probably the last thing that those who loved him, wants to hear, but God doesn't make mistakes and rest assured Brian is with Him and is smiling down on us all now. God bless his daughter and the rest of his family. I'd like to talk to someone from his family. I can be reached at pccobmj@yahoo.com.

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. For more information on the scriptural hope, please visit: [www.watc

“ My heart goes out to the Wiley family. I just found out this morning that Bryan passed. Bryan was like a brother to me. I talked with Bryan two weeks ago. And it really hurts to know my best friend is no longer here. R.I.P my brother.##imported-begin##Anthony Reece##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Wiley family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
