“ Dearest Deborah,

You and your family have my deepest sympathy for the loss of your husband. And though those gathered around you can never know your grief, please take comfort in knowing that you were a wonderful wife and are a great mother. These are two amazing accomplishments God honors the most. May the Creator grant you, at this time, strength over and beyond that which you already have.

“ Sonny:It seems like yesterday when we discussed reforming the falcons.After Dhaak,Kingfish,you and I performed on my tv show:"The Black/Latin prince Presents:where we all sang background for each other on the songs each one of us led,after we performed our showcase presentation @ The Detroit West Club in Nov of 1995,we actually made the dream a reality,adding Dhaak to the mix,we found ourselves performing as The Falcons in Pittsburgh,10 years later.Following that engagement,I pulled some strings to get us to England to perform,only I became critically ill with congestive heart failure and couldn't make the trip.At this point,we decided to replace me with Dhaak's wife:Charnissa.We did perform together one last time in January of 2006 as we headlined a huge doo-wop concert at the Michigan Opera House.I had been in the hospital 10 days,but checked myself out to honor my commitment.I was so ill that night,you & Dhaak had to carry me to the edge of the stage so I could walk on by myself.I vaguely remember the show,but I do remember passing out as we left the stage.I was rushed to U of M Hospital in Ann Arbor,where I received a new heart 3 days later. Now,our plans to reunite the entire group will never happen.Although The Creator has summoned you from labor to rest,the gift of music you have given to us all will forever live in our hearts,minds and spirits.May you forever be at peace:Francisco###imported-begin###Francisco ( Frank ) Garcia I###imported-end###
