“ I'm writing you because I know that this is a difficult time for the Bradford family. There only so many things I can say at a time like this. So I'm going to share with what God says Revelations 21:4 soon there will be no more tears death or pain. Nothing will make us sad anymore if God says it we know that it's true because he loves us. May the god of tender mercy be with the family of Charles Edward Bradford I###imported-begin##Kelynn Salley###imported-end##

“ To the Bradford family, may you please accept these few words as my expression of comfort for your loss of your love one. Jehovah has made us a promise found at John 5:28,29 when all those in the memorial tombs will come out.###imported-begin##Ruth Sumner###imported-end##

“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Bradford family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To the Bradford family: As we await the time when Christ Jesus will awaken all who have fallen asleep in death; including your beloved Charles. I forward my sincere condolences to you all, during this time of bereavement. I pray Our Grand Creator, who is the God of all comfort; give you the strength needed to endure the pain that now fills your heart.
