“ I'm sending my sincere condolences to each of you in the Whitfield family. Eleven years ago, my dad died. It seems like yesterday. Even though I truly miss him, I appreciate the love he showed by helping his family to learn the bible, and its promises. We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. We grieve in many different ways. Our Heavenly Father Jehovah feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon, he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear Jesus voice and come out. Hold on to the precious promises in the bible. Jesus did not just die for us; he suffered; so we could have the "real life" in paradise on earth. It's so important to reflect on the happier memories you shared with him. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal, and no one can take that away from you. "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the "God of all comfort", who will comfort us in all our tribulation"Proverbs 3:5-7; Isaiah 26:19 & John 5:28-29###imported-begin##Liz Malone###imported-end##
