“ I have been thinking about Uncle Charles lately, and I thought about the time me and Ramona had to stay over ma's house because my mother was about to have a baby, and I remember uncle charles taking me to school and he stayed in the cafeteria during breakfast with me and when he was done, he left. I think I was five years old at that time. I just miss him soooooo much that words cannot explain.##imported-begin##Cassie##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. For more information on the scriptural hope, please visit: [www.watc

“ Charles was a great guy and my closest friend...we would talk regularly while we were on our way to work. He would listen to me vent about whatever was going on, make me laugh when I wanted to cry. We would razz each other about how bad the drivers from the other ones state were (I'm from Ohio) until we finally agreed that all the idiot drivers were from Canada...no matter what their plates said. I truly miss him and his family has my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Sherry Kuhns##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to you during this very difficult time. In future days, as you sit quietly and recall fond memories of your dear one, Charles, may your hearts find comfort and reassurance in knowing that Jehovah God has promised to resurrect persons ‘sleeping in death’ (John 5:28, 29; 11:11-14), to eliminate anything that causes us pain, mourning, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4) and to ultimately destroy death forever (1 Cor. 15:26) Keep all that he has said close to your hearts trusting that it will come to pass, for we know that God cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
