“ To the O'Bannon Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the lost of your loved one, Mr. O'Bannon. He was your husband, your father, the spiritual head of your family...taken away all too soon by a horrible enemy...death! (1Cor.15:26).May the God of all comfort give you the power beyond what is normal to cope as you begin to recover gradually from the pain of your loss (2Cor.1:2,3,4) Of course, Mr. O'Bannon will always be in your hearts and thoughts, but our Loving God also holds him in His memory too. He has promised that soon "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out". A resurrection is promised to Mr. O'Bannon and to all who have died (Acts 24:15). May you find comfort in God's Word knowing he cares for you (1Peter5:7) and all that He has said...He will do (Titus 1:2, Revelation 21:4) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I sincerely offer my condolence. Mr. O Bannon Sr. death has no doubt cast a shadow over you as you go about our daily life because death brings us face-to-face with the fact that he is gone too soon. His presence will be dearly missed. So despite the pain of grief, never give up. Let it be your resolve to continue to work your way through your pain and grief.

Times like this will make us sad. But, there is “a time to weep.” (Ecclesiastes 3:4) Sometimes we may feel paralyzed by a tragedy such as this. Remember: God can help you to endure any and every problem they may face. He will give you the “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7)

His footprints that were left will always be seen. The sands of time will not wash them away.##imported-begin##Brenda Johnson##imported-end##

“ Passed on, beyond our mortal vision, But now the thought is robbed of gloom, Within the Father's many mansions, Still dwelling in another room.

The one whose going left us lonely, Is scaling heights undreamed of yore, And guided on by Love's unfolding, Has gone upstairs and shut the door.

“ I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now-He set me free*
