“ To the Foster Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one, Charles. Death, at any age, is an enemy of mankind, but especially when one is so young, because death robs us of our loved ones and leaves us with such pain and agony. However, our Loving Father has promised to destroy death..forever! (1Cor.15:26). He even promises to destroy all that comes with death, such as pain, tears and sorrow (Revelation 21:3,4) God did not create man to die, but to live and if death would keep mankind perpetually in its bonds, it would be stronger than God, wouldn't it? Never may that be the case! Our Loving Creator, our Source of Life, promises that there is going to be a resurrection of our dead loved ones and that they will live forever in happiness, peace and perfect health, right here on a paradise earth (Acts 24:15, Psalm 37:29, Matthew 5:5) May you take comfort from His Word, the Bible, knowing that he is the God of Truth and will do all that he has promised. It will come true (Titus 1:2; Psalm 119:160)With Deepest Sympathy###imported-begin###joyce jonesj###imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of Charles. The bible promises everlasting life. Jehovah always tells the truth, he does not lie. Charles can rest now from his struggles. We must continue to struggle to survive this wicked world, with the crime, violence, war, sickness and death. God did not intend for us to live this way. Psalms 116:15 Precious in the eyes of Jehovah, is the death of his loyal ones. Try to focus on the wonderful memories that you've build in your heart.###imported-begin##Liz###imported-end##
