“ *Uncle Charlie always got teary eyed whenever he saw me because he said I looked so much like my Big Mama who was his sister Lela. Uncle Charlie will be truly missed.

“ *I'll always remember the stories Uncle Charlie shared with me about the history of our family. His memory always amazed me. During my last visit with him in the hospital he laughed and joked that he walked months before my mother even though they were twins. He was strong,tough and a "No Nonsense Man" and I'm glad I got to know his softer and gentle side. RIP Uncle

“ Hey Uncle Charlie:

Just wanted to say that you were a strong force in the Ross family. You always spoke your mind regardless of what anyone said or thought. We (the family) was proud of your accomplishments you made during our life time. I respected you always, and when you was able to get around, you let your presence be known. But now, its God's time to give you some new orders. Tell Grandma Ross, and your other family members Hello! You lived a long time, and your work now is to keep the Angels in line. (I know you will).

Love Always,

Your neice

Shirley Ann (as you always called me
