“ Francine and all the children, I know God will not leave you at a time such as this. You are in my prayers, I can't imagine the loss of a husband, but I do feel the loss of a cousin. Chauncy, I was so glad I got a hug from you in January, I was very glad to see you. I have many many memories of our childhood together. We had a lot of great times together, and I will always remember them. Sorry I could not be with your family at this time, but my prayers are there for comfort. To all of Chauncy's siblings, aunts, uncles, cousins and all of his relatives, I know we will all miss him terribly. Francine, may God forever comfort you and your children, my cousins.

Love you, Gail##imported-begin##Gail Mackey##imported-end##

“ My dear sweet Fran, my prayers are with you and your family during this time of sorrow. Remember earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. I know the Lord will keep his loving arms of protection around you and keep you in perfect peace. He will be whatever you want Him to be just ask. Fran please know that I love you and will keep praying that the Lord lead and guide you through this time of sorrow. I pray God's bountiful blessings on you and your family.

“ Chauncy, though you suffered without complaining, you always found the time for our family as best you could. We know you loved us with all your heart as only a husband and father could. When our 43rd anniversary and Christmas came, we had no idea it would be the last holiday we would spend with you. Know Chauncy, that we always loved you and forever will! Though it's only been a few short days since your passing and the grief is OH so strong, we know in time the pain will ease, but not our very fond memories of you, calculating the grocery bill to the penny, your extremely humorous demeanor, being light on your feet, your poetry and impersonations and the ability to steal the show. You will reside in our hearts for all eternity. We LOVE you. Your eternal wife, Francine, children and grandchildren.##imported-begin##Francine Lucille Clark##imported-end##

“ My wonderful, wonderful brother you know I'm going to miss you so much! May your light continue to shine bright over there on the other side. We were the first two and for a long time we were always side by side looking out for one another. To Fran and family you know whatever it is I can do for you, I will gladly. May God lift you up and carry you forward. I will continue to confide in God how much I want him to surround all of you with his love and continued blessings for the future so Chauncy can say: "That's my FAM"

“ I am so glad that I got a chance to visit with my cousin and that he pressed his way to my Aunt Katie's services. I have so many fond memories of Chauncy, growing up as kids, we were part of a set, him, Beverly, myself and Robert Hugh. My Mom and 3 of her sisters were all expecting at the same time. Funny how you can miss your loved ones, even tho you don't see them very often. Chauncy was unique, he was fun loving and always full of life, laughter and love. I will miss him very much, to his wife and children, may the comfort of God's love see you through this time of your lost

“ Bro. Randall, Mrs. Clark, and family:

We share your sadness in the passing of Mr. Clark. I am a witness that God will not leave us comfortless. Though we weep in the night of our present experience, it is only for a season. This present period of sorrow shall be replaced by a new "morning" where joy is the order of the day.

“ I regret not having the opportunity to spend any time with you and your family over the last few years; but my heart is gladen by fact that I did get to see you one last time at Aunt Katie's Funeral. May God always hold you close and forever bless Francen and your Family.

Love Always
